Specification

Due to the numerous amendments to the specification, a substitute specification is required for readability.

A substitute specification filed under 37 CFR 1.125(a) must only contain subject matter from the original specification and any previously entered amendment under 37 CFR 1.121. If the substitute specification contains additional subject matter not of record, the substitute specification must be filed under 37 CFR 1.125(b) and must be accompanied by: 1) a statement that the substitute specification contains no new matter; and 2) a marked-up copy showing the amendments to be made via the substitute specification relative to the specification at the time the substitute specification is filed.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of species 1 in Paper No. 9 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that it does not burden the Office. This is not found persuasive requiring the Office to prosecute multiple patentably distinct inventions.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claims 30-43, 46-47, 49-52, 55 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 9.

Double Patenting

Art Unit: 3738

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

All claims are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over all claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,299,646.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other claiming the same subject matter which is generic to the elected embodiment of said patent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 44-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 44, "the short height" and "the anterior positioning" lack antecedent basis.

Art Unit: 3738

Regarding claim 45, is the upstand the same element as the already claimed guide mechanism? Applicant should better define "oriented in a substantially medio-lateral direction"; does this define the length is oriented in the medio-lateral direction?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 29, 44, 45, 48, 53, 54, 56, 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gerard et al (FR 2707871).

Gerard et al teaches a tibial prosthesis comprising a metal base 20 secured to anchoring rod 21; and a plastic tibia plate freely slidable over said base; said base having an arc-shaped guide mechanisms 30, 31 and the tibia having corresponding elements 32, 33; wherein the guide mechanisms are positioned a given distance from the center of rotation.

The guide mechanisms are interpreted as having an "anterior positioning".

Claims 29, 44, 45, 48, 53, 54, 56, 57, 58, 62-65, 67, 70 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pappas (5,683,468).

Pappas teaches a tibial prosthesis comprising a metal base 430 secured to anchoring rod 435; and a plastic tibia plate 410 freely slidable over said base; said base having an arc-shaped guide mechanisms 432 and 437; wherein the guide mechanism 432 is positioned a given distance from the center of rotation.

Regarding claim 58, arc-shaped mechanism 436 has a taller central part than side parts. See figure 7.

Regarding claim 45, see element 436, figure 9.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 59-61, 66, 68, 69 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
